THE OTHER GAMES YESTERDAY

Georgetown Defeated Lehigh and Pennsylvania Won From Cornell. Davidson Won Easy From Wake Forest.

Richmond, Va., Nov. 24.—Fifteen thousand people saw the University of Virginia defeat the University of North Carolina in the annual football contest between the two institutions here today. Both sides were confident to the last and there was great enthusiasm on both sides up to and throughout the game.

The contingent of rooters from the Old North State was unusually large and vociferous while the supporters of the Orange and Blue was in no wise behind those of former years in number or outspokenness. But the result was as above stated, the score being 7 to 0.

The Tar Heels were the beavier team and put up a good defensive game, but were conspicuously weak on the offensive. The playing on both sides was marred by fumbling. Nobody was seriously hurt during the game, and the playing was clean throughout.

The line up yas as follows:

Davidson and Wake Foest.

Charlotte, N. C., Nov. 24.—In a one-sided game Davidson defeated the Baptists from Wake Forest here today by the decisive score of 32 to zero. The feature of the ame was the stellar playing of Capt. Kluttz, Erwin, Graham, Cashion and the magnificient punting of Booe, for Davidson.

Washington and Lee Lose.

Birmingham, Ala., Nov. 24.—Alabama defeated Washington and Lee in the best game of the season here today by the score of 9 to 0. The Virginians failed to show the form expected, but Alabama had to play hard for everything she got. Quarterback Moody was the star for Alabama, his fifty yard sprint for the only touchdown and his kicking of the goal made him the central figure.

Clemson Easy for Techs.

Atlanta, Nov. 24.—Six thousand persons, the largest crowd of the season, saw Georgia Techs football squad walk all over Clemson at Ponce de Leon Park this afternoon, for a total of six touchdowns and four goals. Clemson failed to score. Final score: Techs, 34; Clemson, 0.

The visitors were clearly outclassed, Tech breaking up nearly every formation their opponents attempted.

J. K. Ezells, Clemson's plucky right guard, sustained an injured collar bone near the end of the contest and gave way for a substitute.

Syracuse and St. Louis.

St. Louis, Mo., Nov. 24.—Syracuse University defeated the St. Louis University football team here this afternoon by a score of 6 to 0. The Eastern team made three points in the first period and three more in the last. The points were made by goals from the field.

Pennsylvania Defeats Cornell.

Philadelphia, Nov. 24.—In a hard and fast game in which there was a mixture of good and bad playing, the University of Pennsylvania football team defeated Cornell on Franklin field this afternoon 12 to 6, the Quakers' score being made on two touchdowns and goals and Cornell's on two goals from placement by Quarterback Butler.

Despite the fact that Pennsylvania won, the score was a disappointment to the followers of the Philadelphia eleven. The Red and Blue team at times lacked dash while some of the plays were marred by fumbling and the poor kicking of Hunts.

On the other hand, Cornell played a more dashing game than was expected. On several occasions it looked as though the Ithica men would succeed in carrying the ball across the goal line for touchdowns, but the Pennsylvanians braced when things looked dangerous and held the big red team from New York State repeatedly.

South Carolina Loses.

Charleston, Nov. 24.—Outplayed at every angle of the game save punting, battered and bruised by the snappy Citadel attack and charging, and held to one, first down, the entire game, the Carolina eleven went down to defeat before the Citadel at Hampton Park this afternoon by a score of 5 to 0. The Citadel eleven showed superiority throughout the game.

May Die From Injuries.

Birmingham, Ala., Nov. 24.—Right Tackle Burkee, of the Washington and Lee team, who was put in the game with Alabama this afternoon as a substitute just before the end of the last period, was knocked unconscious in one of the final scrimmages and is still unconscious tonight. His injury is said by physicians to be concussion of the brain.

Auburn Team Winner.

Savannah, Ga., Nov. 24.—Scoring the first touchdown within two minutes after play began the heavier, faster Auburn eleven swamped the University of Georgia team in their annual game on Athletic Field this afternoon, the final score standing 26 to 0. From the outset it was evident that Georgia was outclassed. Old SIAA players here for the game framed a resolution to the effect that the Auburn eleven is the fastest they have ever seen in the association.

The management of the Auburn team tonight telegrapher a challenge to Vanderbilt University for a game to decide the championship of the South. Auburn bases her claim for the Southern title to the fact that her goal line has not been crossed this season.

Sewanee Outclassed.

Nashville, Tenn., Nov. 24.—Vanderbilt outclassed Sewanee at almost every angle of the field today, winning decisively by the score of 23 to 6. Over 10,000 people witnessed the contest which in the early portion of the game was one of the most

TROOPS PARADING IN MEXICO CITY

AVIATORS CHARM CROWDS.

Drexel and Grahame-White Made Flights in Philadelphia.

Philadelphia, Nov. 24.—Followers of aviation in this vicinity were kept busy today watching the fortunes of J. Armstrong Drexel, of this city, who yesterday established a new world's altitude record, and Claude Grahame-White, the English manbird, who brought to a close a series of successful exhibitions at the Point Breeze race track in the Southern section of the city.

Drexel again proved to be the star attraction. He attempted to fly back to Philadelphia in a Bleriot monoplane from Oreland, Pa., where he landed yesterday after his record breaking flight, but he became lost and was forced to land at Trenton Junction, four miles from Trenton, N. J. Oreland is about 13 miles from Philadelphia, but Drexel in his flight of one hour and ten minutes today traveled 20 miles.

Mr. Drexel landed because of a shortage of gasoline, having started with but little more than sufficient to carry him from Oreland to Point Breeze. He said he had mistaken the Delaware river for the Schuylkill and had traveled north instead of south. He had intended following the Schuylkill river to Point Breeze.

Mr. Drexel, after arranging for the safe keeping of the aircraft returned to Philadelphia by train.

Claude Grahame-White and several thousand persons were awaiting Mr. Drexel at Point Breeze and when word which proved to be untrue, was received that the former was coming down the river, Mr. White arose in one of his machines and sailed up the river to meet him.

Mr. White gave several exhibition flights today and on one of his trips took aloft General James Allen, chief signal officer of the United States army. General Allen was taken around the field several times at a height of several hundred feet and he was so much at ease that he was taken for a trip over the Philadelphia navy yard, which is located about a mile from Point Breeze. General Allen was in the air about ten minutes.

HONDURAS TROUBLE NOT OVER.

Learned in Washington That Residents May Overturn Government.

Washington, Nov. 24.—Through resident Hondurians in Washington intimations have reached the State Department of a renewal of the efforts made last Summer to overturn the existing government of President Davilla in Honduras and to install General Manuel Bonilla as president.

Honduras was party to the treaties of Washington which the Central American governments solemnly pledged themselves to prevent the organization within their territory of revolutionary movements directed against one another, and while the United States was not a signatory of that treaty, yet as it was the moral influence of Secretary Root that made the treaty possible, there is every disposition on the part of the State Department to live up to the spirit of its engagements by a strict enforcement of the existing neturality laws.

SUNK OFF DIAMOND SHOALS.

Unknown Schooner Wrecked On Carolina Coast.

Beaufort, N. C., Nov. 24.—A large schooner with topmast projecting fifteen feet above water is reported to have been sunk a mile and a half due east from Diamond Shoal Lightship. The wreckage is dangerous to passing vessels. No tidings of the crew or the name of the vessel have as yet been recived.

The steamship America which passed Diamond Shoal Lightship early today reported having picked up a small powerboat and one man, supposed to have been blown out to sea several days ago.

Alexandria, Va., Nov. 24.—Rev. J. R. Sevier, pastor of the Second Presbyterian church, has accepted a call to the pastorate of the First Presbyterian church, of Augusta, Ga., January 1st.

RECORD FOR PORK RAISING.

Nash County Farmer Kills Big Porker.—Rocky Mount News.

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Rocky Mount, N. C., Nov. 18.—On the farm of Mr. J. W. T. Eason, Nash county, there was recently killed a dressed "porker that weighed 572 pounds. Mr. Eason has raised an unusually large amount of meat this year. Unusual interest in this feature of farm life has been taken in Nash. Mr. S. A. Batchelor, of Nashville, carried on the banner last year with two unusually large hogs.

Announcement is made of the forthcoming marriage of Mr. T. W. Coleman, of this city, and Miss Bessie Pauline Barnes, of Wayne county, formerly of Rocky Mount, the wedding to take place on the 30th.

Much interest is being taken here in the Thanksgiving football games at Norfolk and Richmond and the indications are that there will be a large attendance.

LONG HAT PINS MUST GO.

Police President of Berlin Takes Women to Task.

Berlin, Nov. 24.—The police president of Berlin has declared war on the dangerously protruding hat pin in a proclamation issued today he calls the attention of the women of the city to the many recent reports of injuries inflicted by hat pins that projected beyond the rims of women's hats. The accidents have been especially frequent in street cars and usually men are the victims.

The president calls upon the women either to cease using long pins or turn the points so that they will not be a constant menace to the traveling public.

We trust that Mr. Gaster is not seriously ill, and that he will soon be all right again.

FIGHTING CEASES IN MEXICO TOWNS

Reports Indicate Comparative Quiet Throughout the Entire Country.

BANDITS CAUSING TROUBLE

Mexican and United States Troops Closely Guarding the Border.—Whereabouts of Madero Still Unknown.

Laredo, Texas, Nov. 24.—Mexican Consul Miguel E. Diebold, with headquarters in this city, today received official advices which state that quiet has been restored at all points throughout the country. The only exception cited is in what is known as the Guerro district, in the State of Chihuahua, in that section 200 revolutionists are still making attacks on small villages.

The consul says they are not "revolutionists," but are bandits who are in the field to rob and pillage.

General Puro Villar, stationed in Nuevo Laredo, Mexico, was interviewed today. He has received official advices from all points embraced in his jurisdiction, extending from Matamoros to Columbia 30 miles above Laredo on the Mexican side of the river, and says everything is quiet along the border and in the immediate interior.

The Mexican government still maintains a cordon of troops, which is now guarding the border. On the Mexican side of the river troops are on guard from Brownsville to Del Rio and according to information covering this stretch of territory quiet has existed all day.

Consul Diebold says the Mexican government has the situation well in hand. Sporadic outbreaks may occur, he says, but the troops are adequate to cope with the situation, and any uprising will be immediately suppressed.

Notwithstanding the tranquil conditions, alarmists rumors are still in circulation. These rumors are not confined to the border towns, but are current even in the capital, Mexico City. A rumor current there today and which was reported to the Minister of War, was to the effect that an attack would be made upon Matamoros today or tonight. This rumor was communicated to General Villar, who in turn immediately got in touch with his aides in Matamoros. After a thorough scout of the country a reply was sent to Gen. Villar that there was no indication of outbreak either at Matamoros or in the immediate vicinity. According to the rumor in the capital the telegraph wires were being cut and any report of the attack would be impossible. Up to a late hour tonight the wires were working without interruption

General Villar repeated the rumor to headquarters of the third military zone at Monterey.

General Trevino, who left Monterery yesterday with a train load of soldiers for Torreon, over the Mexican International Railroad, had not arrived at a late hour tonight. The authorities say that he has probably left the train and is marching with his troops over land to some point in the Guerro district, in the State of Chihuahua, where the revolutionists are yet actively carrying on their campaign.

If the whereabouts of Francisco I. Madero is known no intimation is given out by the Mexican authorities.

Mexican Suspects Stopped.

Eagle Pass, Texas. November 24.—A day coach containing 81 Mexicans, 50 of whom were able bodied men, were stopped this afternoon at the border by United States customs officials, who said they wanted to make sure they were not revolutionists.

The Mexicans say they came from North Texas, and are en route to the ranch of General Geronimo Trevino as laborers. They passed through San Antonio coming here and this made the officials suspicious as San Antonio is said to be the rebel headquarters of the revolutionists in the United States.

Monterey is Quiet.

Monterey, Mexico, Nov. 24.—This city is as orderly as ever, the police and military having the situation completely in hand. The revolution is the main topic of conversation, but there is no evidence of it beyond the fact that the city is without telegraphic connection with the outside world.

Border Reports Exaggerated.

Boston, Mass., Nov. 24.—Julian C. Edgerly, a Boston newspaper man, today received a personal telegram under today's date, from Paul Hudson, general manager of the Mexican Herald, a newspaper published at Mexico City, in which it is declared that government forces have the upper hand in the revolt which is in progress. The telegram is dated November 24, and reads:

"Border reports greatly exaggerated. From official advices I am satisfied the government forces are ample to control the situation in Northern States."

Gen. Reyes Not Coming Back.

Paris, Nov. 24.—General Bernardo Reyes, the Mexican soldier, who came to Paris some time ago, on a military mission for the Mexican government, denied today the report that he intends to return to Mexico to take a hand in the revolution. To a reporter of The Associated Press General Reyes expressed the opinion that President Diaz, whom he described as a great patriot, would succeed in restoring order and afterward adopt effective measures for allaying the present popular discontent in Mexico.

General Reyes declined to go into details regarding the causes which led up to the present condition of affairs in his country, but expressed the belief that unrest could not be considered as serious and would not last long.

Jose Limantour, Mexican minister of finance, is also in Paris, having arrived here several months ago. Dr. Limantour declared today that the situation in Mexico is in no sense serious. Local agitations, he said, have been magnified by Texas frontier reports into a general revolutionary movement. Madero, he said, who is a wealthy son of a former governor of the State of Coahuila, is a well meaning, but deluded socialistic distrinaire, who imagines that he is inspired by the spirit of Benito Juarez to regenerate the Mexican democracy.

People Are Jubilant.

Eagle Pass, Texas, Nov. 24.—Officials and citizens of Cuidad Porfirio Diaz, are jubilant today over encouraging reports received there that the revolutionary situation is well in general. Cudad Porfirio Diaz has always been fully prepared for the worst.

Last night Colonel Fuentes, in command of the Federal forces in the northern district of Mexico, left Cuidad Porfirio Diaz for Guerrero, at the head of about 100 men.

COMING TO AMERICA?

MAY BE ETHEL LENEVE.

Young Woman Who Boarded Steamer for America.

Queenstown, Nov. 24.—A young woman, supposed to be Ethel Clara Leneve, boarded the steamer Majestic when the vessel touched here on her way to New York today. Questioned she emphatically denied this identification. Those in close touch with Miss Leneve say that she is still in England remaining in seclusion to avoid the annoyance resulting from the unpleasant notoriety which she gained as a friend of Dr. Crippen, who yesterday was hanged for the murder of his wife.

COTTON FRAUDS OVER MILLION

Postmaster General's Statement of Operations of Alabama Firm—False Bills of Lading From Knight, Yancey Co.

Washington, Nov. 24.—Commenting on the arrest yesterday by Postoffice Inspectors of John W. Knight, senior member of the cotton brokerage firm of Knight, Yancey & Co., Decator, Ala., Postmaster General Hitchcock gave out a statement in which he says that the operations of this concern through the alleged fraudulent use of the mails would doubtless exceed a million dollars.

The alleged fraud was committed he says, by the use of bogus bills of lading bearing fictitious shipments. Mr. Hitchcock asserted that by making false reports of shipments to insurance companies certificates of insurance were procured covering both railway and marine risks. These genuine insuance certificates were accepted as indicating the honesty of the shipments and the bills of lading thus accompanied were negotiated by note brokers, who procured payment from the foreign importers in advance of delivery. The cotton purchased, Mr. Hitchcock says never arrived.

Mr. Hitchcock declares that the transactions of Knight, Yancey & Co., were similar to those of another concern of Corinth, Miss., whose members were recently indicted on evidence procured by postoffice inspectors.

The Postmaster General's statement further alleges that "the investigation developed that the two concerns had an arrangement by which they exchanged drafts, each holding power of attorney for the other to accept such drafts, and that together they committed frauds aggregating between two and three million dollars.

A FOOTBALL FATALITY.

Player Killed in Thanksgiving Game at Winstead, Conn.

Winstead, Conn., Nov. 24.—Harry Lee, aged 17 years, was killed here today in a football game between Tierney cadets and an independent team, composed principally of Gilbert preparatory school students. His skull was fractured.

SAGE FOUNDATION PLANS ARE READY

Model City as Memorial in New York State Will Cost Millions.

A MOST UNIQUE PROJECT

Will be Established in Memory of Russell Sage—Enterprise Will be Self Supporting—$2,500,000 Available.

New York, Nov. 24.—The preliminary plans of the Russell Sage foundation, established by Mrs. Sage as a memorial to her husband for the establishment of a model suburban city, providing healthful and beautiful homes for persons of moderate means were announced today.

Briefly, the project is to utilize a tract of 142 acres of land at Forest Mills Gardens, Long Island, nine miles from this city, in laying out a town for 1,500 families. The initial financial expenditures for the purpose as announced now amount to $2,250,000. How much more will be needed to carry the plans to completion is not known, but the foundation trustees state that Mrs. Sage is prepared to supply all the funds required to carry out her ideas.

Through today's announcement it is made plain that the enterprise is not a charity, but is to be made self supporting and yield a fair return on the investment. Its purpose is to enable persons in moderate circumstances to own their own homes at a minimum of cost, while obtaining buildings of better construction than the average individual could erect and amid surroundings and under restrictions that will make the little city an ideal residence place. The minimum cost of paying for a home there, it is estimated, will be $25 a month, including principal and interest.

The officers of the foundation who are associated with Mrs. Sage in the enterprise, are Robert W. DeForest, president; Edward H. Boulon, vice president; Cleveland H. Dodge, treasurer, and John M. Glenn, general director.

The statements outlining their plans were issued from Mr. DeForest's office this afternoon.

From the point of respectability, the community is to be a real aristocracy; financial standing a secondary consideration.

The railroad station will be situated in the public square, forming the entrance to the community.

This square will be surrounded with ornamental buildings containing the business offices, stores and shops. A village green of two and one-half acres will add to the picturesqueness of the entrance gate and square. Bridges will connect with the railway station and entrances to apartments, so that commuters may enter and leave trains from their apartments without exposure to stormy weather.

The present plans contemplate the opening of the model town early next year.

OVERTON DICKINSON DEAD.

Son of Secretary of War—Had Been Ill for a Year.

Washington, Nov. 24.—Jacob M. Dickinson, Secretary of War, received word tonight of the death of his son, Overton Dickinson, at Belle Mead stock farm, near Nashville, Tenn. The Secretary had just returned from a visit to his son, whom he found apparently much improved. He left immediately tonight for Nashville.

The younger Dickinson had been in ill health for more than a year and succumbed to heart failure. His illness was said to be directly due to the shock following the death of his young wife some 14 months ago. He was manager of the Secretary's noted stock farm.

The Secretary was to have entertained a large party at the Army-Navy football game on Saturday, among the guests being Mr. and Mrs. Taft. Because of the unexpected death of his son, the invitations for the event have been recalled.

THE RANSOM BUST.

January 13th Date Date for Unveiling at State Capital.

(Special Star Telegram.)

Raleigh, N. C., Nov. 24.—The North Carolina Historical Commission selected Friday evening, January 13th, for the unveiling of the marble bust of Senator Matt W. Ransom, just arrived from Paris to be placed in one of the four niches in the rotunda of the State House. The presentation speech by Col. J. Bryan Grimes, acceptance by Governor Kitchin and tributes to Senator Ransom by ex-Judge R. W. Winston and ex-Governor Thomas J. Jarvis, will be the features.

WOMAN BURNED FATALLY.

Sad Death at Fort Caswell of Officer's Wife.

The Southport News of this week has the following:

As was stated in our last issue Mrs. J. R. Flynn was severely burned last Wednesday afternoon, her dress accidentally catching fire from a burning trash pile. At first it was thought that with skilled medical aid that her life could be saved, but all efforts proved insufficient to stay the hand of the Reaper, for on Saturday night, at 8 o'clock, surrounded by her devoted husband and a circle of friends, the end came.

Her husband is a clerk in the Quartermaster Department, at Fort Caswell, and has been here since the spring, during which time he has resided in Southport.

About three months ago Mrs. Flynn and her two children, one little girl about eitght years, and an infant, joined Mr. Flynn here, and were making this their temporary home, Mr. Flynn expecting to be transferred from this post.

During their wedded life Mr. and Mrs. Flynn have lived in Puerto Rico, the former home of Mrs. Flynn, and spent several years in the Philippines. They also lived in St. Louis and in Philadelphia.

On Monday the interment was had here, Father Hayden, of the Roman Catholic Church, of Wilmington, performing the burial rites at the home. Owing to the husband's long service in the army department the Fort Caswell band rendered music for the procession in going from the home to the cemetery, while soldiers from the post were the active pall bearers. The Methodist church choir kindly assisted in the service.

Much sympathy is felt for the unfortunate family. Mrs. Larsen has the little children in her care until arrangements can be made for their care in a convent in Baltimore.

FAILED TO SHOW IN NEW BERN.

Funds of Vogel Minstrels Attached, But Case Was Compromised.

Alleging that the aggregation failed to fill an engagement in Newbern, thereby causing him to sustain a loss of $150, Mr. L. J. Taylor, manager of the opera house there, brought attachment proceedings before Justice J. M. Hines, in Newbern, against John W. Vogel, manager of the minstrels appearing at the Academy of Music in this city last night, and the papers were sent here yesterday and served last night by Constable Savage. The papers were served shortly after the curtain went up, the officer levying on money at the box office. A garnishee and attachment were served on Mr. Walter Penny, agent of Mr. S. A. Schloss, lessee of the Academy of Music, and a garnishee was also served on Mr. Schloss. The plaintiff in the action, Mr. Taylor, was represented by Kellum & Loughlin, of this city, and later in the night there was a satisfactory adjustment of the matter and the funds levied upon were released by the constable.

Wanted at Goldsboro.

Chief of Police B. M. Denwark, of Goldsboro, arrived in the city last evening to take back to that place Lovitt Cox, colored, arrested late Wednesday night by Constable Savage on a capias sent here from Goldsboro. Cox is wanted there as a State's witness in a case and was under bond for his appearance at the trial, but instead of showing up at the hearing came to Wilmington. Goldsboro officers learned that he was here and sent the capias. Officer Denmark will leave this morning with his prisoner.

WANTED IN DUPLIN COUNTY.

White Man Arrested Here Taken to Magnolia for Trial.

Wiley Fussell, a young white man of Teacheys, arrested here Tuesday night on charges of drunkenness and disorderly conduct and fined $10 and costs in the Recorder's court Wednesday morning, was last evening taken to Magnolia by a Deputy Sheriff from Duplin county to answer a charge of selling whiskey. The Duplin authorities learned yesterday morning that Fussell had been arrested in this city and wired that he be held until the afternoon, as he is wanted in that county. The deputy sheriff came prepared to pay the amount of fine and costs imposed upon Fussell in the Recorder's court in order to get him without delay. The fact that the Duplin authorities would pay his fine and costs here indicates that he is badly wanted at Magnolia on the whiskey charge. The deputy sheriff left on the evening train with his prisoner.

UNWRITTEN LAW BOOMERANG.

Greenville Man Who Killed Wife Must Pay Death Penalty.

(Special to Charlotte Observer.)

Greenville, S. C., Nov. 23.—Before the opening of common pleas court yesterday for a two weeks' term John Cuffie, convicted in the Spring of wife murder, was sentenced to hang on January 5. The case of Cuffie is a most unusual one. Going home at night he found his wife in company with a white man, Jess Fuller, with whom she said she was going to elope. Cuffie left home, got a gun, came back, and the man and his wife were gone. He followed them into the country where he learned where they had gone, soon seeing them ahead in the road he opened fire with the gun, and the woman fell dead. The man was not injured. Cuffie sat beside the body till morning and, at daylight came in and notified the officers that he had killed the woman, giving himself into custody, at the same time claiming that he had aimed at Fuller and had killed his wife. Fuller tried to establish an alibi and partly succeeded. Cuffie was tried, and entered the plea that he killed his wife thinking he had his gun drawn on Fuller. He was convicted, the case appealed to the Supreme Court, but a new trial refused.

Senatorial Contests in Several States

Washington, Nov. 24.—Is John W. eKrn to fill the seat of Beveridge, of Indiana? Will John R. McLean step into the shoes of Senator Dick, of Ohio? And is David R. Francis, of Missouri at last to reach his goal? These are the questions that are proving of interest to political Washington. In Indiana Kern appears to be an easy winner. Francis hopes to slide into Washington without trouble, but McLean has not such easy going. There are half a dozen men who may push the Cincinnati newspaper man to one side. The report from Ohio that Governor Harmon might accept the Senatorship is not taken seriously here, but Ohio is noted for her politicians, and it's not going to be a walkover for any one man.

Theatrical

John W. Vogel's Minstrels provided a big offering at the Academy of Music Thanksgiving matinee and night yesterday and two large audiences for the most part were pleased with the performances. The grand opening was entirely differnt" and presented the scene of a "Radium Palace," said to have been constructed by a Columbus man at a cost of $10,000, and introducing Prof. Jas L. Finning and his silver connet band, which was a feature of the show.

The singing and joking were on an average, "Billy" Burke was perhaps the bright particular star of the company and both in the first part as an end man and in his soprano hits, he came off with the honors for the minstrel men. Another favorite was Sid Levy while each member of the Louisiana Glee Club were favorites. The olio was very good and at the afternoon was not quite up to the standard of the other features of the show, but was very good nevertheless. The performance concluded with a roaring farce, "The Mysterious Hotel," which was a fragrant reminder of the old-time negro minstrelsy of former days.

The next attraction at the Academy of Music will be Sam S. and Lee Shubert and Lew Fields in the 'Midnight Sons,' which will come on Thursday evening, December 1st.

Crystal Palace Yesterday.

The Crystal Palace did an unusually good business yesterday and the programme was greatly enjoyed. The two performances in the afternoon drew record breaking afternoon crowds and there were large audiences for each of the three night performances. Four performances will be given today at the usual hours. Tonight will be known as amateur night at the Crystal as five well known local people will take part in the programme. Amateurs will be seen at the Crystal every Friday night hereafter.

At the Bijou Today.

The Bijou received its share of the Monday crowds yesterday and the offering was pleasing. Another fine bill is offered today. "Auld Robin Grey" and "A Wedding Trip from Montreal through Canada to Hong Kong," are the titles of the pictures which will be shown. The former, adapted from the Scotch poem, "Auld Robin Grey," is a love story beautifully and simply portrayed, while the latter is a picture filled with bright comedy and abounds in novel stage settings and situations which will appeal to any audience.

Joyland.

Extra special features for today are, "A Game for Two," and a "Mexican Love Affair." Also by repeated requests the beautiful fairyland picture, "A Fairy's Hallowe'en," will be run as an extra. Every child in the city should see this picture. Bring the little ones.

FOUR-MASTER ON ROCKS.

Schooner Venner Foundered at Hell Gate.—Tugs Give Up Task.

New York, Nov. 16.—Buffeted and swept out of her course by the strong tide and rough water of Hell Gate and high winds the big four-masted schooner Clarence H. Venner, of Hyannis, Mass., went on the Hell Gate rocks today and now lies hard and fast on the eastern side of the rock. Three tugs after two hours' work gave up the task of trying to get the vessel off the rock, and it was decided to await the high tide tonight. A police launch and a tug stood by to take off Captain Samuel N. Baker, his wife and a crew of nine in case of danger. The big schooner was on the way from Boston to Philadelphia in ballast.

MISSIONARY CONVENTION ENDS.

Conducted With Sessions at Washington, N. C., Yesterday

Washington, N. C., Nov. 24.—After a business session in the afternoon and religious services at night, the 66th annual State Missionary Convention adjourned after a three days' session. The next convention will be held in Ayden, N. C., the date not yet having been determined.

Jackson, Tenn., Nov. 16.—Federal court machinery was clogged today because of the on-arrival of three sheets of paper en route from Washington since Monday. With their arrival in all probability tomorrow morning, the case of the prosecution will be closed and the climax will come in spite of the United States against the Standard Oil Company of Indiana, charged with receiving freight rate commissions.

MISS WILSON'S SUCCESS.

Brilliant Concert at the Auditorium of the State School for the Blind.

(Raleigh Evening Times.)

Miss Flora Wilson sung her way into the hearts of Raleigh people last night for all the large audience gathered in the auditorium of the State School for the Blind, every one was delighted with the concert and charmed with Miss Wilson. Besides a wonderful soprano voice of great range and quality Miss Wilson is possessed of a charming personality, natural grace and capivating presence.

The programme last night was a long one and unusually varied, showing up the wide range and power of Miss Wilson's voice. She very graciously responded to a number of insistent encores.

The most difficult numbers on the programme perhaps and those that best brought out the delicacy and admirable technique of her voice, were "The Shadow Song," and the great aria "Ah Fors e Lui" from Traviata, and the waltz song from "Romeo and Juliet." In the group of Scotch songs in the second part of the programme the audience was especially charmed, Miss Wilson being most effective in Scotch costume the same worn when she sung at Castle Skibo, the home of Andrew Carnegie, in Scotland.

Again, in the character songs "Very Kind to Me" and "Little Orphan Annie," and "If No One Ever Marries Me," Miss Wilson appeared in a costume suitable to the part.

Among the group of German songs none was more enjoyed than "Still Wie Die Nacht" by Carl Bohn.

While not the most pretentious numbers, there were none that gave any more pleasure than the singing of "Annie Laurie," "Robin Adair," and "The Rosary," sung by special request. In these Miss Wilson scored a distinct success.

The last last number on the programme was a notable one, "United" words and music by Mrs. Mary Speed Mercer, of Rocky Mount. The orchestral accompaniment was composed by Sousa for his band from the music by Mrs. Mercer. Miss Wilson accompanied by the chorus from the State School for the Blind and the orchestra, sung it for the first time in North Carolina last night. Miss Wilson was charmingly gowned for the song in a dress of flags. After the song Mrs. Mercer, who was present, was forced to rise and bow her acknowledgement of the appreciation of the audience.

Altogether the concert was one of the most distinct musical successes ever given here and the impression made by Miss Wilson will long be a delightful memory.

Mr. R. Blinn Owen accompanied Miss Wilson, his sympathetic playing adding much to the success of the evening as did also the excellent music of the orchestra.

NEWS OF WHITEVILLE.

Thanksgiving Hunting—Street Paving—Other News Notes.

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Whiteville, N. C., Nov. 24.—Thanksgiving is being celebrated in Whiteville by nearly all of our male population shouldering guns and taking to the woods. Several deer drives are organized and also a bear hunt in Green Swamp. The woods are full of game and fine sport is predicted.

The Star's correspondent this morning met Mayor Davis and asked him when he expected to begin the work of paving the streets, and would the town do the work with hired hands or let it out by contract? Mr. Davis said they would prefer the contract plan if suitable prices could be had. They have bids from parties both of New York and Chicago, who wanted 71 and 75 cents per square yard to put down the paving, but he had made a calculation and the work ought to be done for 59 cents. If he could get some good man who understood managing labor they would do the work with day labor. It is proposed to put down 20 feet of that cement-gravel, eight inches deep in the middle of the street, and leave the ten feet on either side unpaved, but give that portion a thorough working.

Dr. H. B. Maxwell states that the smallpox epidemic in the county seems to be somewhat abating, and it is of a mild type. He thought it could be kept within bounds and also stamped out. The county is quarantining all cases, but have sent none as yet to the pest house.

The ladies of Whiteville will open a Bazaar on Dec. 15th, under the auspices of the Civic League, which organization is in a flourishing condition. They will open a regular country store, and make a specialty of Christmas goods and cakes.

All of our manufacturing enterprises are now running on full time and are highly prosperous. The division of the Coast Line Railway embraced in the county of Columbus is said to be the best paying of that great railway system. It is not generally known but there are 24 railway towns in Columbus county, and many of them places of importance.

Our people are closely watching the proceedings of the State Drainage convention now in session in Wilmington, and when the large packages of Stars reach Whiteville it is the first item of news they look for. The postoffice here has been requested to distribute the Morning Star before any other of the mail matter, not even excepting letters. The paper brings us our first news and every one wants to read the Star while waiting for distribution of the mails.

Madam Rumor says that one of the brightest young professionals in Whiteville will soon lead a charming young lady of Wilmington to the altar. Well, as Wilmington is to steal one of our girls, fair exchange is no robbery.

Not Sorry for Blunder.

"If my friends hadn't blundered in thinking I was a doomed victim of consumption, I might not be alive now," writes D. T. Sanders, of Harrodsburg, Ky., "but for years they saw every attempt to cure a lung-racking cough fail. At last I tried Dr. King's New Discovery. The effect was wonderful. It soon stopped the cough and I am now in better health than I have had for years. This wonderful life-saver is an unrivaled remedy for coughs, colds, lagrippe, asthma, croup, hemorrhages, whooping cough or weak lungs. 50c $1.00. Trial bottle free. Guaranteed by Robert R. Bellamy.

AT TRINITY COLLEGE.

Declamation Contest.—Duke Benefactors and Buildings.

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Trinity College, Durham, N. C., Nov. 24.—What promises to be one of the most significant events in secondary school declamation circles will take place at the Craven Memorial Hall tomorow night at 8 o'clock, when thirty or more of the leading high schools and preparatory schools of North and South Carolina and Virginia will compete in a declamation contest for a beautiful gold medal offered by the "9019," a patriotic society of the college to the best declaimer. Each school is to have one representative.

The committees in charge have completed final arrangements for the occasion, and most of the contestants will arrive on the afternoon trains today. The contestants will be entertained while here by the society but mostly by the students from the places from which they come.

The announced plan of Mr. Benjamin N. Duke to erect two new buildings on the campus, one within a few days of completion, is soon to be followed by another, and that instead of the twin academic and administrative buildings there will be a rectangular group, the second to be begun in a few days.

At the commencement of 1909, Mr. Duke gave $50,000 for another building. The problem of housing the students was becoming more difficult almost daily. At the 1910 Commencement, Mr. Duke added $100,000 to the buildings at Trinity, this gift being meant to cover the cost of the second building, and the joining of the two by a monumental tower. To build both it was necessary to tear down the old Washington Duke building. This destruction was to have begun in a few days, but it was impossible to take care of the students that would be robbed of rooms in that building and it has been decided to erect a new dormintory. The return of President Few, who is now in South Carolina, will, it is said, settle the matter of awarding the contract and that the work will be started at once.

The old Washington Duke Building will not be torn down until commencement in 1911. It will continue to be used by the students as dormitories and for the administration offices. In the meantime work upon the new dormitory, an unexpected gift of Mr. Duke will be pushed to completion as rapidly as possible.

To complete the work will cost the great philanthropist at least $250,000, and will make his and his family's gifts to the institution almost $1,500,000. When all these new buildings are completed there will be adequate rooms for the students in whatever number they may come for several years. The great tobacco magnate has his heart always with every advance movement at the college, and says that it shall never fail the institution.

The morning session was composed of song and praise services, discussion upon the needs of the church in North Carolina, new business, then an address on the work of the union meetings, present, past and future, by Rev. Hopkins, of Cincinnati, Ohio, National Superintendent of Bible Schools. Then came the reports of different committees and adjournment. The night session was held in both the Christian and Baptist churches and was composed chiefly of a song and praise service and a number of addresses on the following subjects: Home Missions, by Robert M. CAROLINA'S PRIMACY.

Carries Away High Honors at Exposition in Omaha, Nebraska.

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Omaha, Neb., Nov. 20.—Last year North Carolina carried away high honors at the exposition of the National Horticultural Association held at Council Bluffs, Iowa, across the river from this city. This year she did quite as well, if not better, at the exposition closed last night after a ten day continuance. She was awarded six beautiful and valuable silver trophies for the best plate display of apples from the Gulf States, the best display of horticultural products, all States and countries competing; the best collection of nuts, the best collection of English walnuts, the best collection of peanuts, and the best display of vegetables from the Gulf States. In addition to the silver trophies, she was awarded 29 blue ribbons, four white and eight red for displays in minor classifications. Proper estimate may be had in the showing in the way of progress when it is understood that about 40 States competed from Maine to the Pacific, including Texas, Florida, Louisiana and other Southern States.

Messrs. W. N. Hutt and S. B. Shaw, of your Agricultural College, who were in charge of the display this year as last, had twice as many products this year as they could get room for. As it was, they had a half more space than last year. They look after the Old North State's interests.

No Man is Stronger Than His Stomach

A strong man is strong all over. No man can be strong who is suffering from weak stomach with its consequent indigestion, or from some other disease of the stomach and its associated organs, which impairs digestion and nutrition. For when the stomach is weak or diseased there is a loss of the nutrition contained in food, which is the source of all physical strength. When a man "doesn't feel just right," when he doesn't sleep well, has an uncomfortable feeling in the stomach after eating, is languid, nervous, irritable and despondent, he is losing the nutrition needed to make strength.

Such a man should use Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. It cures diseases of the stomach and other organs of digestion and nutrition. It enriches the blood, invigorates the liver, strengthens the kidneys, nourishes the nerves, and so GIVES HEALTH AND STRENGTH TO THE WHOLE BODY.

You can't afford to accept a secret nostrum as a substitute for this non-alcoholic medicine OF KNOWN COMPOSITION, not even though the urgent dealer may thereby make a little bigger profit. Ingredients printed on wrapper.

CITY MAKING AND CITY MAKERS.

If there has been a lagging in the efforts at city making anywhere in the South, there is to be redoubled activity to make up for it. The efforts of the city makers in various cities in the Carolinas especially have never been so earnest and vigorous as now. There is a tremendous revival of the determination to make larger and more prosperous cities wherever the opportunities and possibilities are good. The movement seems to be universal.

Probably the most imposing and significant movement to secure publicity, attract industries and promote city development is that at Charleston, S. C. The real city makers are the Chambers of Commerce, the Commercial Clubs, and the booster organizations of various kinds, and it is through the Charleston Chamber of Commerce that the work there has been inaugurated on a scale that is bound to have big results. Hundreds of Charlestonians have gotten a move on them and have joined the Chamber of Commerce so they can do their part in working for Charleston. The Chamber of Commerce in that city has employed an expert city promoter, experienced and thoroughly equipped for accomplishing what the Chamber aims at achieving.

It is effort in the right direction to put the commercial and booster organizations on a strong footing, for they are the advance guard in city making. We should say, therefore, that the first step in making a city is to make live organizations out of dead ones or organize working bodies where there are none. Charleston is not the only city that is infusing life into its Chamber of Commerce. Several cities are doing the same thing. From the Charlotte Evening News it is noted that the Charlotte boosters are getting a new move on their steady move. We let the News tell it here:

"The Greater Charlotte Club, under the presidency of Mr. Keuster, is keeping up its record for activity. The new president is a hustler, and just now he is making an effort to increase the club membership to 500. On next Monday committees will endeavor to add 75 or more new names to the membership roll. Every business man in the city, if not already a member, should lose no time in joining this club. It means business, and it gets results. Let's come to the aid of the new president and help him to realize his ideas of expansion."

The Star has not called attention to this activity of other cities for the purpose of filling space. What is contained in this article is not intended for information, but is utilized for the purpose of throwing out a hint to the citizens of Wilmington. Wilmington has a Chamber of Commerce which has done effective work but which can do greater work than it has ever done if every live man in Wilmington joins the Chamber or its Commercial Club. It is the duty of every Wilmingtonian, old and young, to hunt up the Chamber and not wait to be hunted up and dragged along with the movement for the upbuilding of Wilmington. This is all. You do the rest.

North Carolina's corn crop for 1910 is stimated at 57,754,000 bushels. The estimate for last year was 48,886,000 bushels. An increase of 8,868,000 bushels means progress but we ought to have an increase of 25,000,000 next year.

The Hon. William J. Bryan has had the temerity to declare that 'Colonel Roosevelt is out of the race for 1912." Under conditions and prospects now existing, Col. Roosevelt is not in a position hastily to call the Nebraskan a prevaricator.

FARMERS IN POLITICS.

The farmers constitute the great conservative element in our body politic, except when they are led to extremes by men who get into their organizations for political purposes. We have seen that illustrated in North Carolina when Marion Butler became State president of the Farmers' Alliance and led a large portion of it into Populism and later into the Republican camp.

However, it is generally the farmers who break away from former political affiliations at times and constitute the balance wheel of politics. The recent result of the election in the main is being attributed to the political independence of the farmers. In many of the States heretofore Republican the farmers are doing their own thinking. They have seen hard times and flush times under Republican National administrations, and in the midst of their prosperity the Republican leaders have told them that their prosperity came from the Republican party. They believed it once but they can no longer be misled.

We are speaking more particularly of the Northern and Western farmers, and the recent meeting of the National Grange. Patrons of Husbandry, have brought up these reflections. The Grange was once a potent factor in North Carolina and other Southern States, but it gave way to the Farmers' Alliance and later to the Farmers' Union, which is today very strong in the South. Profiting by past experience, the Farmers' Union in the Southern States has eschewed politics, but no doubt the problems of farmers yet have more or less weight in deciding the way to vote, while the organization itself fights shy of politics in its unions. We infer, however, that the Grange, which still has about a million members, mostly in Northern States, has been more or less dipping into politics. At the recent meeting of the National organization the delegates had a warm time over discussions involving charges of rule by a political machine, arbitrary exercise of power and gross misuse of funds on the part of the National officers. Gov. N. J. Bachelder, of New Hampshire, is the National head of the Grange, and at the Atlantic City meeting there was a strong insurgent sentiment bent on ousting some of the Grange officials. In the warm discussions, it appeared that the majority of the delegates were exceedingly independent and gave free exprssion to their opinion even on the political questions of the day. These Northern farmers, strange to say, were a unit, says the Washington Post, for vigorous regulation of railroads and other public utilities. They made it plain that they refuse to recognize the existence of any special interests entitled to special privileges which are denied to the people as a whole. They favored direct primary elections, election of United States Senators by direct vote of the people, and expressed themselves strongly in favor of the income tax amendment and tariff revision. The Grangers had much to say about the middlemen, declaring that they get more out of good prices of farm products than the farmers themselves, and they declared that they will defeat every representative who does not stand for what Grangers stand for.

There is no wonder then that Governor Bachelder declares that never in the history of the Grange or of the country has there been a greater independence of party lines among the farmers, and that accounts for the fact that in Republican States they largely voted this time with the Democrats. Some of our Northern Republican contemporaries deplore the change of sentiment in the Grange and profess to believe that politics will destroy its usefulness. The fact is, the Grangers seem to be Democratic and hence the anxiety over the future of the Grange.

The Colonel at Oyster Bay may be so awfully quiet because he doesn't want to take any more chances on putting his foot in it.

The Charlotte Evening Chronicle, having suggested that the Charlotte to Wilmington Highway project, be consolidated with the State Highway project from Charlotte to Salisbury and Asheville, called upon Col. H. C. Dockery, of the Rockingham Post, to say what he thinks of that proposition. Col. Dockery, just as we anticipated, is in for amalgamation. He wants the Charlotte to Wilmington Highway men to go to Charlotte Nov. 30th to confer with the directors of the State Highway.

North Carolina counties which hardly know whether to show a spirit of progress or not, are invited to contemplate for a minute the vote of Wise county, Va., on a good roads bond issue of $700,000. Out of 2,000 votes cast 1,700 were for good roads. Thus, only 15 per cent. of the citizens of Wise county were content to act like the inhabitants of "Sleepy Hollow." What is your impression of Wise county? Why, the decision for good roads is proof enough that Wise is one of Virginia's most progressive counties.

EDITOR CALDWELL.

Throughout North Carolina there will be a recurrence of pain over the distressing announcement that Editor Joseph P. Caldwell, of the Charlotte Observer, had another stroke of paralysis on Tuesday at Morgantoin. The Observer yesterday says that Mr. Caldwell rallied on Wednesday and while his condition was "considered satisfactory," by his physicians, we fear there is nothing upon which to base a hope that Carolina's distinguished editor will ever again be able to write for us the articles which alternated between honest and fearless opinion, calm and cheerful philosophy, and the pleasantry and humor that made Mr. Caldwell the past master of persiflage. It is a sad reflection that an editor so gifted and useful is laid low by an affliction relief from which we scarcely dare expect. Nevertheless we hope that Editor Caldwell will be spared yet a while.

Macon is agitating removal of the Georgia capital from Atlanta to that city. Macon must be deliberately encouraging malice on the part of Atlanta.

If we could get stirred up industrially, like we do politically, Wilmington would be elected. Probably it woud be a good idea to get some industrial spieler who can wake up things like the industrious political spieler.

Mrs. Berger, wife of the Socialist Congressman elected from the Milwaukee district, says a man's salary should be equally divided with his wife. The married ladies will be opposed to that. They prefer to go right on letting the old man keep only street car fare and cigar money.

Mrs. Ethel Thomas, a talented writer, is now a member of the staff of the Wadesboro Messenger and Intelligencer. For some time, Mrs. Thomas has contributed to that paper under pseudonym of "Beck Ann Jones," and her articles have displayed a piquancy, humor and originality that mark her as a woman of genius. There is no reason why many of the bright women of North Carolina could not be aiding in brightening up the State papers.

CURRENT COMMENT.

We have decided that we want a commission form of government so that we may substitute business for petty, personal politics in the management of our city affairs—and we are going to get it.—Chattanooga Times.

As the Man-on-Horseback the colonel's goose is cooked. He is dismounted and afoot. Although personally admiring and loving him, let us one and all rejoice, each saying to the other: "Had you rather Caesar were living, and die all slaves, than that Caesar were dead, to live all freemen?"—Louisville Courier-Journal.

Crumpacker, who will be the sole Republican member of the next Congress from Indiana, has heretofore devoted his legislative activities chiefly to futile efforts to secure a reduction of Southern representation in the House. The prediction is a safe one that the 62nd Congress will hear nothing from him in that line.—Norfolk Virginian-Pilot.

The Albemarle Enterprise declares that corn can and has been raised in Stanly county at a cost of four cents a bushels, whereupon the Statesville Landmark eagerly, though courteously requests more detailed facts and figures. We believe The Enterprise will be conferring a favor on the whole State if it adopts the Landmark's suggestion.—Charlotte Chronicle.

The Wilmington Star ventures the opinion that if South Carolina girls would quit raising Cain and go to raising corn they would shortly be independent of all the fellows in the land. In the name of humanity we protest! A South Carolina girl is irresistibly fascinating when raising Cain but too intent upon her work when raising corn to give her attention to anything else.—Charlotte Observer.

Southerners take a conspicuous part in New York City. There is no sphere of activity in which this is not true. Just now the Southerner who is attracting the most attention in the great metropolis is W. G. McAdoo, who built the "Hudson tubes." In competition with the powerful Interborough-Metropolitan Company and others, this wide awake and progessive man from the South offers to operate the proposed tri-borough subway system to be built by the city. He agrees to put up a million dollar bond as a guarantee. We predict that McAdoo will get the job. He is one of the men who usually get what they go after.—Greensboro Telegram.

Are the women of this country forgetting the Bible? That assertion was made in Ithaca, N. Y., a day or two ago by a woman reformer. The probabilities are that she is more familiar with the suffragette movement than she is with the home life of American women. She probably spends more time at club meetings than she does in nurseries, kindergartens, churches, and Sunday Schools. We do not believe for one instant that the women of America are forgetting the Bible. It would be an evil day for the country when they did; and the country and humanity are growing better all the time.—Savannah News.

Milch cows have advanced $10 a head in York county, according to reports received by the Yorkville Enquirer, which explains that the credit for this increased value is due to the operations of the Co-operative creamery recently established in that town. The adaptation by farmers of business methods to the conduct of their affairs always pays. Ours is the co-operative age. That fact has long been recognized by the dwellers in cities, who have taken advantage of it to their immense profit. It has been ignored by agriculturalists in this part of the world until very recently. They are only now beginning to understand what large benefits they may obtain from working in unison with one another. The Yorkville experiment appears to be bearing fruit, as all such enterprises are sure to do if properly established and conducted. —Charleston News and Courier.

High prices that are the result of undersupply are a matter of course, and do not furnish a cause for just complaints. But either high prices or low prices that are brought about as a result of juggling legislative interferences with the natural working of supply and demand are subject of righteous indignation. Insofar as the cost of living has been advanced in the United States by the imposition of unnecessary tariff rates or by reckless extravagance in the conduct of the affairs of government, the people have unerringly placed the responsibility. They are tired of paying every time they buy an article of necessity ten, twenty, thirty, fifty or one hundred per cent, advance upon actual cost to go into the pockets of favored interests. Their votes show what they think.—Philadelphia Record.

Once again we hear that a method has been discovered by which human bodies may be preserved an indefinite time. Just why any such thing should be desirable seems a bit hazy. A temporary suspension of disintegration where shipment is necessary, is, of course, to be wished; but the undertakers have accomplished that long ago. Who would wish to be made a mummy, and to have one's grave desecrated some hundreds of thousands of years hence for show purposes? There are two or three Pharaohs, several Egyptian princesses and dozens of other mummies on exhibition in museums in that country. They are all interesting to us, of course, but there is not one among us who would like to contemplate a similar fate for our own cadavers after a lapse of time. It is almost as gruesome as the foreknowledge that one's bones would be articulated, to be rattled by medical students at anatomy lectures. —Savannah News.

PASSING OF THE FERRIES.

Improved Transit Facilities Between New York City and South.

With the announcement of the opening of the new Pennsylvania Railroad Station at 7th Avenue and 32nd street, New York City, next Sunday, comes the announcement of the discontinuance of the Jersey City-Brooklyn and the Jersey City-West 23rd street ferries. All trains of the Atlantic Coast Line will arrive at and leave from the new station, which is only one block from Broadway, two blocks from Fifth Avenue, and is in the heart of New York's social and business activities. It fronts directly on Seventh Avenue, Thirty-first, Thirty-Second and Thirty-third streets and Eighth Avenue; also on Thirty-fourth street by special plaza. Within a short radius are located the majority of the big hotels, clubs, restaurants, theatres and most of the big retail stores. All sections of the city are within easy reach by surface cars, and a station of the Sixth Avenue Elevated, as well as a station of the Hudson and Manhattan tubes, are only a short block from the main entrance.

In addition to the through service to and from the Pennsylvania Station, connection will be made at Manhattan Transfer (near Newark) with local trains to and from Jersey City, which will connect with the Desbrosses or Cortlanat Street ferries and the Hudson and Manhattan tubes to and from lower New York City.

Passengers to and from Brooklyn will transfer in the Pennsylvania Station to and from trains between there and several stations in Brooklyn, and indeed to all points in Long Island.

All baggage will go to the station at Sventh Avenue and Thirty-second street, unless otherwise directed, but may be checked to and from the Desbrosses or Cortlandt Street stations New York City and Flatbush Avenue Brooklyn.

Thus, in the maze of modern improvements, marking a new and important era in the march of transit facilities between New York, and the South, begins the passing of the greatest ferry service in the world, which began in the most primitive fashion in 1642. The boats then in use were square-ended scows, having masts and sails. In 1814 horseboats were put into use, having a wheel in the centre propelled by a sort of horizontal treadmill worked by horses. At that time Robert Fulton was experimenting with a steam ferry boat, and this resulted in the "Nassau" being put on the Fulton ferry in that year. In those days ferrymen were not expected to cross the Hudson and East Rivers in a storm or under other unfavorable conditions and the trips were somewhat irregular.

It appears now that with the opening of the greatest and most modern railroad station in the world the apex of perfection in passenger transportation between the South and Gotham has been reached. At any rate the greatest engineers claim that no mind of today has been able to conceive moe complete facilities. Another benefit in addition to the convenient location of the Station, is the shortening of the time, in that later departure and earlier arrivals are made. Passengers leaving Wilmington at 7:00 P. M. will arrive at their hotel doors in New York next day 1:50 P. M., and those leaving at 8:40 A. M., will arrive 5:59 next morning, but may remain in the sleeping cars until 7:30 A. M.

More Than $6,000,000 Appropriated.—Face Lack of Accommodations.

New York, Nov. 21.—Sixteen state sanatoria, twenty-eight county hospitals, and twenty-one municipal hospitals fo rtuberculosis have been erected and provided for since January 1, 1909, says a bulletin of the National Association for the Study and Prevention of Tuberculosis, issued today.

Within the last two years the number of state institutions for tuberculosis has doubled, and the number of county and municipal institutions has increased from about 30 to 80. The expenditures of public money for the treatment of tuberculosis also has more than doubled. Not less than $3,000,000 of state money was appropriated for tuberculosis institutions in 1909, when 33 legislatures met, and over $600,000 in 1910, when only eleven legislatures were in session. The appropriation of counties and cities for tuberculosis hospitals and sanatoria in the last two years will aggregate fully $2,500,000, bringing the total of official appropriations for tuberculosis hospitals up to over $5,000,000 in the past two years.

In spite, however, of this good showing, the National Association for the Study and Prevention of Tuberculosis states that not one-tenth of the public provision for turberculosis that is need has been made. More than 250,000 tuberculosis patients are constantly without proper institutional treatment.

RALEIGH WON IN FINE GAME

Capital City Boys Battled Local High School Team at League Park Yesterday Afternon, Winning by Score of 6 to 0.

The largest crowd in years to witness a football game in Wilmington, journeyed to League Park yesterday afternoon to witness the contest between the Wilmington and Raleigh High School teams. Between 300 and 400 devotees of the sport witnessed the game, which is declared to have been a beautiful exhibition. The Capital City boys captured the game by the score of 6 to 0, thereby winning the High School championship of the State.

The Capital City boys won the game in the first quarter, securing a touchdown and a goal kick. For the remainder of the game it was nip and tuck between the teams. While the locals were able to hold their own fairly well after the first quarter the situation did not look dangerous to the Raleigh boys at any stage of the game. Raleigh won the game mainly because of the heavier team. A contributing cause was the fast manner in which some of the players moved around. The Wilmington boys, however, played a magnificent game throughout and were highly praised by the spectators for their good work. It was not Wilmington's bad playing, but Raleigh's unusually good playing that won the game for the visitors.

Both teams showed excellent training and good coaching. Riddick, Jeffrey, Harriss and Woolcoot starred for the visitors, while Taylor, Burnett, C., Parsley, Hicks and Burnett, D., (captain), played magnificent ball for the locals. Raleigh and Wilmington contested for honors two years ago, the game then resulting in a tie. The game yesterday was the first the local team has lost this season.

The officers of the game were: Referee, W. Peschau; umpire, Louis Poisson; field judge, S. Schulken; head linesman, R. Grant. The Raleigh boys left last evening for their home.

The game yesterday is the last of the season for the Wilmington team. The boys will now turn their attention to basketball, a team having already been organized with L. Boone captain; R. W. Cantwell, manager, and H. S. Shaw coach. Arrangemnts are being made for a match game with a team representing the Donaldson Military School at Fayetteville.

At the conclusion of the game yesterday members of the Wilmington High School assembled on the grounds and gave three cheers for Prof. H. S. Shaw, principal of the High School, who did such fine work during the season in coaching the team. With few exceptions the members of the team were inexperienced at the beginning of the season and with raw material Prof. Shaw developed a team which almost secured the championship of the State.

SILVER SPRAY TOWED BACK.

Vessel Began Leaking Soon After She Got to Sea—Slow Progress.

The schooner Silver Spray, Capt. Johnson, which was towed to sea last Tuesday night by the tug Blanche, began leaking badly and the schooner was filling so fast that it hindered her progress and she was towed back to port yesterday by the tug Blanche from Frying Pan shoals.

The vessel, it will be recalled, was towed in here by the Blanche several weeks ago and after pumping out and temporary repairs made an effort to sail to Newport News, where she was going into drydock at a shipyard. The vessel was picked up by the Blanche yesterday some 25 miles from the Cape Fear bar and Capt. Johnson stated that she was leaking at the rate of about four feet an hour and it kept the crew continually at the pumps.

The schooner spent almost three days at sea and during that time had gone only a short distance. Before the schooner put back to sea the last time she was pumped out and new pumps were placed in her. The Silver Spray was laden with ship timber and bound from South Carolina to Maine and Capt. Calder, the former master of the vessel, stated that he believed the schooner sprung a leak by running on a stump or some other obstruction at the lumber mill while loading.

It is believed now that the cargo will have to be taken out and the leak repaired here, before it would be safe to put back to sea with her. The schooner was brought up the river and beached to keep her from sinking, near Kidder's mill.

NEW CITY TEAMS ARRIVE.

Alderman F. W. Bonitz Purchases Ten Fine Horses.

Alderman Fred W. Bonitz, chairman of the Streets and Wharves Committee, returned to the city yesterday morning from a business trip to Washington and Baltimore. On his return he was met in Richmond Tuesday by Superintendent R. O. Grant, of the street department, and together they purchased for the city ten horses to replace the teams lost in the recent Orrell livery stables fire. The teams arrived last night and will probably be put to work today. In the lot are seven grays and three bays. Alderman Bonitz said that he did not purchase any mules for the reason that they could not be bought for less than $300 each, whereas the horses were purchased for considerably less, the 10, including freight, etc., costing about $2,700. Several sets of harness were purchased, running the total to about $2,950.

Killed Fine Doe.

None of the many Thanksgiving hunters who sallied forth from Wilmington yesterday had better "luck" than did Capt. W. L. Beery and Mr. James C. Stevenson, who returned last evening from the country round about the "Seven-Mile Post," on the Scott's Hill road, bringing a good brace of birds and a fine doe, which they had the good fortune to come upon at close range. Both had a shot at the deer, bringing him down with No. 2. duck shot. The "boys" at Sixth and Castle streets engine house dressed the deer for the hunters.

GENERAL OBSERVANCE HERE

Wheels of Industry at Standstill, Suspension of Business Activities—Church Services and Many Forms of Amusements.

Throughout the country, yesterday was observed as a day for thanksgiving and praise to the Gracious Giver for the many manifold blessings enjoyed during the years which have passed and Wilmington was no exception. The observance in this city and section was very general, marked by a suspension of business activities, beautiful and impressive services in many of the churches in the morning or evening, while in the afternoon a great many indulged in some form of sport or amusement. Others, however, took advantage of the holiday for a period of rest and spent their time quietly around their own firesides.

In this season of praise and thanksgiving among the well-to-do and all comfortably fixed in this world's goods, the deserving poor of the city were not overlooked, but through the numerous charitable and church organizations, they, too, had great cause of rejoicing that they had been permitted to live to see the dawn of another Thanksgiving Day. It is hardly probable that any of the poor of the city were overlooked; not even the inmates of the county home, convict camp and jails, all receiving something to remind them that life, after all, is worth the while. Basket after basket of provisions were distributed among the poor families by individuals and organizations and many were the hearts made glad. Thanksgiving and Christmas are two seasons of the year upon which the poor of the city receive particular atention and many find their chief source of rejoicing in the consciousness of the fact that they had been able to contribute something to make happy those less fortunately situated in life. There are many in the city who devoted a good portion of the past several days and yesterday in the preparations of these well filled baskets and they felt doubly repaid when, in making deliveries yesterday, they could see the faces of the recipients light up with a radiance they had not worn for many months perhaps. The baskets, for the most part, contained provisions, fruits, etc., in sufficient quantities to last an ordinary family for a week or more.

With the exception of those churches which held their Thanksgiving services either Wednesday night or last night, services were held in all the Wilmington churches yesterday morning. The interior of some of the churches had been most attractively decorated and in nearly every instance special music was furnished. Special sermons were preached by the pastors and the large congregations, unusually large at some churches, entered reverently into the spirit of the occasion.

The wheels of industrial plants were at a standstill and practically all the business houses as well as the public offices and banks were closed throughout the day, while the postoffice observed the usual holiday hours. Interest of local golfers yesterday centered in the annual Thanksgiving tournament for men on the links of the Cape Fear Golf Club, just east of the city, and a godly number of devotees of the sport spent the day there. Another feature of the day in the realm of sport, was the football game at League Park between the Wilmington and Raleigh High School teams and the contest was witnessed by a large number, in comparison with the usual small attendance at amateur games. Many others spent their afternoon in visiting the motion picture theatres and at the minstrel performance at the Academy of Music, a special matinee being given there by the Vogel minstrels. The Crystal, Bijou and Joyland claimed a goodly portion of the pleasure seekers during the afternoon and evening and at each place special programmes were given.

As is usually the case in this city and section on holidays this season of the year, a good portion of the city's population took their guns and dogs and journeyed to the woods, and the sportsmen had very good luck. Some hunted nearby while others took the morning trains for places where the birds are more plentiful than in this immediate vicinity. Still others, went to Wrightsville Sound and Wrightsville Beach, where they enjoyed oyster roasts, the Lighthouse, at the Sound, Seashore cafe and Lumina restaurant, on the beach, all being liberally patronized during the day and evening. It is very likely that the observance here was the most general in years.

Now that Thanksgiving Day has come and is numbered with the days of the past, thoughts of the people will turn in earnest to the next festival occasion—Christmas, and the shoppers will get busy within the next few days, making their selections before the invariably great rush just before the holidays set in. Merchants of the city have made elaborate preparations for the Christmas season and while many holiday shoppers have already been seen in the various stores, the bulk of the purchases will be made during the next few weeks.

The Brotherhood of St. James' Church, which collected and distributed a large quantity of provisions and fruits, etc., wishes especially to thank the merchants of the city for their generous contributions. The charitable inclinations of the Greek merchants was amply shown in the large contributions of fruits. More than 30 large and well filled baskets of provisions and fruits were distributed among as many poor families of the city, and for the delivery of these the Armour Packing Company, through the local manager, Mr. Greene Fenley, kindly tendered the use of several trucks. Mr. Fenley is an enthusiastic member of the Brotherhood and was much interested in the work of helping the poor yesterday. The Brotherhood desires to return their sincere thanks for the use of the trucks. In addition to the baskets distributed among the poor families the Brotherhood sent a quantity of good things to eat to the Catherine Kennedy Home, James Walker Memorial Hospital and the county jail. The work of collecting and distributing the gifts was carried out under the leadership of Mr. W. N. Harriss, the enthusiastic director of the Brotherhood, who is never so happy as when he is doing something for other people.

BIG ACADEMY OFFERING.

"The Midnight Sons" Secured by Manager Schloss for December.

Announcement was made yesterday of the biggest theatrical attraction Wilmington has yet had. This city the present season has had the finest attractions in its history, including a number of original New York companies intact, and yet there will be one even larger and better next week. It will be the most pretentious of all musical comedies, "The Midnight Sons," and the date for the Academy here is next Thursday night. To folks who are posted on things theatrical it is only sufficient to state that "The Midnight Sons" will be presented in Wilmington by Lew Fields and Messrs. Schubert Brothers with the same sumptuous scale as given with such signal success in New York. However, to show to all the importance of the forthcoming engagement, it would seem but necessary to note that the company travels exclusively in its own private cars, six in number, and by special train only. It will come to Wilmington from Charlotte, arriving by special train next Thursday morning at 9 o'clock.

The Academy management guarantees the attraction to be the most colossal spectacle ever seen on the stage of the Wilmington theatre presented by the largest and best company. It will be a dazzling, magnificent production of musical comedy, the same as played for 35 solid weeks at the Broadway theatre, New York city. It is confidently expected that the house will be sold out the first day of the sale of seats, which will be next Wednesday. For a production of this character, it is expected that many people will come from adjoining towns for the big show, seen only once in a lifetime out of the big theatrical centres in the North.

SERIOUS OFFENSE CHARGED.

Negroes Arrested for Setting Fire to Cotton at Compress.

Charged with setting fire to a bale of cotton at the Champion Compress, Alex. Brown, a colored man, and Tom Leach and Sam Stringfield, colored youths, are in the city prison awaiting hearing before the Recorder this morning, being unable to give the required bond for appearance at trial. It is alleged that the three negroes were the only persons in a room at the empress in which a small fire was discovered Wednesday afternoon and it is thought very certain that one of the trio started the blaze, the timely discovery of which is very likely all that prevented a serious conflagration. The fire was extinguished in a few minutes with buckets of water, and other excellent fire equipment always kept convenient in the plant. The three negroes were taken in charge by one of the watchmen at the compress and later turned over to the police. It was stated at police headquarters yesterday that Stringfield had stated that Leach struck a match and threw it in the cotton, but both Leach and Brown deny that this was done. The police have been unable to find any motion which might have actuated either of the trio to start the blaze. More light may be thrown on the matter at the investigation this morning.

BLOWN OUT OF HER COURSE.

Schooner Philips M. Brooks Sailed in for Harbor and Repairs.

After being blown about 100 miles out of her course by a northeast storm which she encountered off Frying Pan shoals last Saturday, the schooner Philips M. Brooks, Capt. Sanders, bound from Little River, S. C., to New York, lumber laden, came into Southport Wednesday for harbor and repairs.

The schooner lost her fore jib boom and one of her sails was torn. The vessel was only recently in this port and cleared from here for Little River, S. C., where she received cargo of lumber from the Hammer Lumber Company. Capt. Sanders stated that the vessel was blown back with the storm to within 30 miles of Charleston. The repairs were made Wednesday night and the schooner was towed to sea yesterday by the tug Blanche. The vessel was not otherwise damaged and can make the trip safely to New York unless she encounters another storm.

IMPROVING THE CAPE FEAR.

Government Boat Wright at Work in River Near Fayetteville.

The Fayetteville Index of this week has the following which will be read with interest here:

"The Cape Fear river is being put in shape for procuring a minimum depth of eight feet in the channel. The government steamer Wright is operating with a force of hands between here and Wilmington, with Fayetteville as the starting point of operations. All obstructions are being taken from the stream, and trees and stumps are being cut out along the banks for a distance of eight feet above low water mark.

"This preparatory work is under the supervision of a government engineer stationed at Fayetteville, while Capt. Earl I. Brown, the engineer in charge of the whole work, has headquarters in Wilmington."

LETITIA LODGE ENTERTAINS

Enjoyable Affair Given Last Night by Daughters of Rebekah at the Odd Fellows' Hall—Fine Programme.

Under the auspices of Letitia Lodge No. 3, Daughters of Rebekah, the women's branch of Odd Fellowship, a very pleasing and largely attended entertainment was given in Odd Fellows' Hall last night from 8:30 to 10 o'clock. Novel invitations were sent out a few days ago to Odd Fellows and their friends and in response several hundred assembled at the hall last evening for the exercises.

Mr. J. F. Littleton called the meeting to order and presented Miss Mary Landen who presided. The exercises began with a piano solo charmingly rendered by Miss Jesse Lupo, following which Mr. William L. Smith was presented and in a short talk stated the object of the entertainment—to secure funds for furnishing the infirmary at the Odd Fellows' Home at Goldsboro—and spoke very interestingly of the work being done at the home.

This was followed by the presentation of "Over the Garden Wall," in which there were a number of songs, recitations, dialogues and amusing situations. A "garden wall," around which were banked Southern smilax and other decoratives, had been arranged and gave a touch of realism to the affair. Among those taking part were Mr. S. F. Garrison, Mrs. R. A. Cromwell, Mrs. Henrietta Curtis, Mrs. S. F. Garrison, Mr. Ernest Pittman, little Misses Ruth and Gladys Parker and Ada Bordeaux, Miss Nora Batson, Mr. and Mrs. A. T. Parker, Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Littleton, Miss Jennie Thomas, Oscar Walton and Henry Haar. The piano accompaniment was played by Miss Annie Marshburn. "Judge" G. W. Bornemann was present and delighted the audience with a song in German and a number of accordeon seleceions.

Following the rendition of the programme delicious refreshments were served. Mrs. J. F. Littleton, Noble Grand, had charge of entertainment and had as her assistants the following ladies: Punch Committee—Mrs. McCullen and Mrs. Annie Branch. Apple—Mrs. Walton, Mrs. Peadrick, Mrs. Linquist and Mrs. Marshburn. At the door the guests were received by Mrs. T. G. Landen and Mrs. Eli Batson, and on the entertainment committee were Mrs. Littleton, Mrs. Ella Hamlin and Mrs. Wiggs.

The ladies realized a neat sum for the deserving cause and all those in attendance spent a most enjoyable evening.

Dr. Fallon's Lecture Last Night.

Dr. Louis F. Fallon, of Wayne, Pa., gave a fine illustrated lecture in the Parish House of St. James' Episcopal Church last night on the mission work being carried on by Dr. Grenfell, on the coast of Labrador, with whom Dr. Fallon was associated for two Summers. The attendance was large and the lecture was heard with much interest. The stereopticon views of scenes on the coast of Labrador proved a big feature of the lecture.

NEIGHBORLY VISITS FACILITATED

Her Husband's Plan Enabled Mrs. Andrews to Go Anywhere.

Ennis, N. C.—Mrs. L. E. Andrews, of this place, writes: "For about two years, I suffered with womanly troubles. Three years ago, I had an accident. I took medicines from three physicians, and it never did me much good. I had been past going anywhere for twelve months. My husband got me a bottle of Cardui and it helped me so much. It did me more good than anything I have taken. It is the best medicine made. After taking three bottles I am about well. I can go to see my neighbors now. I think it my duty to tell what Cardui has done for me.'

Every woman would always keep Cardui handy, if she knew what reliable results it gives in cases where weakened vitality indicates the need of a strengthening tonic.

Remember that Cardui is purely vegetable, composed of ingredients which have been found to build up the vitality, and strengthen the womanly constitution, as well as prevent or relieve those terrible pains from which weak women suffer.

Cardui should help you, because it has helped so many others. Try it.

ANNUAL TOURNAMENT AT GOLF LINKS YESTERDAY.

The annual handicap golf match for men on the links of the Cape Fear Golf Club, just east of the city, claimed the interest of the local golfers yesterday and many spent the day on the grounds. There were about 25 in the handicap match for 27 holes, 18 being played before and nine after luncheon. It was an ideal day for golfing and the players entered the contest with enthusiasm. The links had been put in excellent condition by the club's professional, Mr. Mackie, of Fox Hill, N. Y. Mr. Herbert O'Neill won the first prize and George Rountree, Esq., and R. H. Gwaltney tied for the second. A handsome cup offered as the first prize and golf balls as the second. The lady members of the club had an approaching and putting contest in the afternoon in which a number of players were entered. WILMINGTON YOUNG MAN CLAIMS ALAMANCE BRIDE.

Burlington, Nov. 24.—On Tuesday afternoon, November 22nd, at eight o'clock, at Bethlehem Church, near Mebane, a beautiful wedding of much interest to a large circle of friends took place, when Miss Myrtle, the only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Morrow, became the beautiful bride of Mr. Vance Sykes, of Wilmington.

The church was beautifully and tastefully decorated with white chrysanthemum sand evergreens, the bridal party standing under a large heart of chrysanthemums. Immediately before the ceremony Miss Annie Morrow, of Burlington, beautifully rendered "Traumerel," after which Miss Bennett, of Burlington, sang "Because." Then to the strains of "Bridal Chorus," from Lohengrin, the ushers, Messrs. Paul Morrow, of Burlington, Calvin N. Morrow, Jr., of Mebane, Banks Sykes of Raleigh, Ed C. Atwater, of Chapel Hill, followed by the ring girl, little Miss Eugenia Patterson, of Greensboro, a cousin of the bride, prettily dressed in white batiste, entered; then came the maid of honor, Miss Mary Pritchard, of Chapel Hill, beautifully gowned in white chiffon, over blue silk, wearing a black picture hat. Then came the bride, handsomely attired in a blue going-away gown, leaning on the arm of her father. Up the opposite aisle came the groom with the best man, Prof. W. T. Clay, of the A. and M. College.

The ceremony was impressively performed by the pastor, Dr. B. W. Mebane, assisted by the venerable uncle of the bride, Rev. C. N. Morrow. The party left the church to the strains of Mendelssohn's.

Mr. and Mrs. Sykes left immediately for Wilmington, where they will make their future home.

At twelve o'clock an elaborate luncheon was served at the hospitable home of the bride at Ridgeland Farm. The guests, including the bridal party, were: Mesdames M. W. Moore, Emeline Woods, Geo. W. Oldham, Misses Elizabeth Battle, of Greensboro; Onie Thurston, of Virginia; Mary Morrow, of Burlington; Jennie Oldham, Selina Morrow, Annie McBane, Messrs. M. W. Moore, Geo. W. Oldham, Chas. Menfee, C. V. Sellars, S. H. Webb, and John Sykes, and family, relatives of the bride.

The bridal cake was cut immediately after the luncheon. Miss Annie Morrow cut the thimble; Miss Mary Morrow the dime; Miss Bess Battle the needle; Mr. Paul Morrow, the ring; Mr. Lacy Morrow, the button; Mr. Banks Sykes the nickle.

FISHER VETERAN DEAD.

Rev. Nathan Milliken Passes Away at Home in Brunswick.

The following from the Brunswick News of this week will be read with interest:

"With deep regret it is our duty to announce the death of Rev. Nathan Milliken, familiarly known as Uncle Nathan, which occurred on the 17th inst. The deceased had lived to a ripe old age, born December 8th, 1828, lacked but two weeks of being 82 years of age.

"He was a veteran of the Civil War, having enlisted in the service of the Confederacy in July, 1862, in Co. K., 36th Regiment, N. C. troops, the company raised by Col. John D. Taylor. He served his country faithfully until the fall of Fort Fisher, at which place he received serious injury by the explosion of a bomb, from which injury he suffered at times until the end.

"Soon after the war he entered the ministry, preaching as a licentiate for two years, when he was fully set apart on the first Sunday in November, 1867, in which capacity he labored 43 years, his service closing only with his death.

"In his death the community has lost an honored and highly esteemed citizen, and the Baptist church a faithful and zealous expounder of the Gospel."

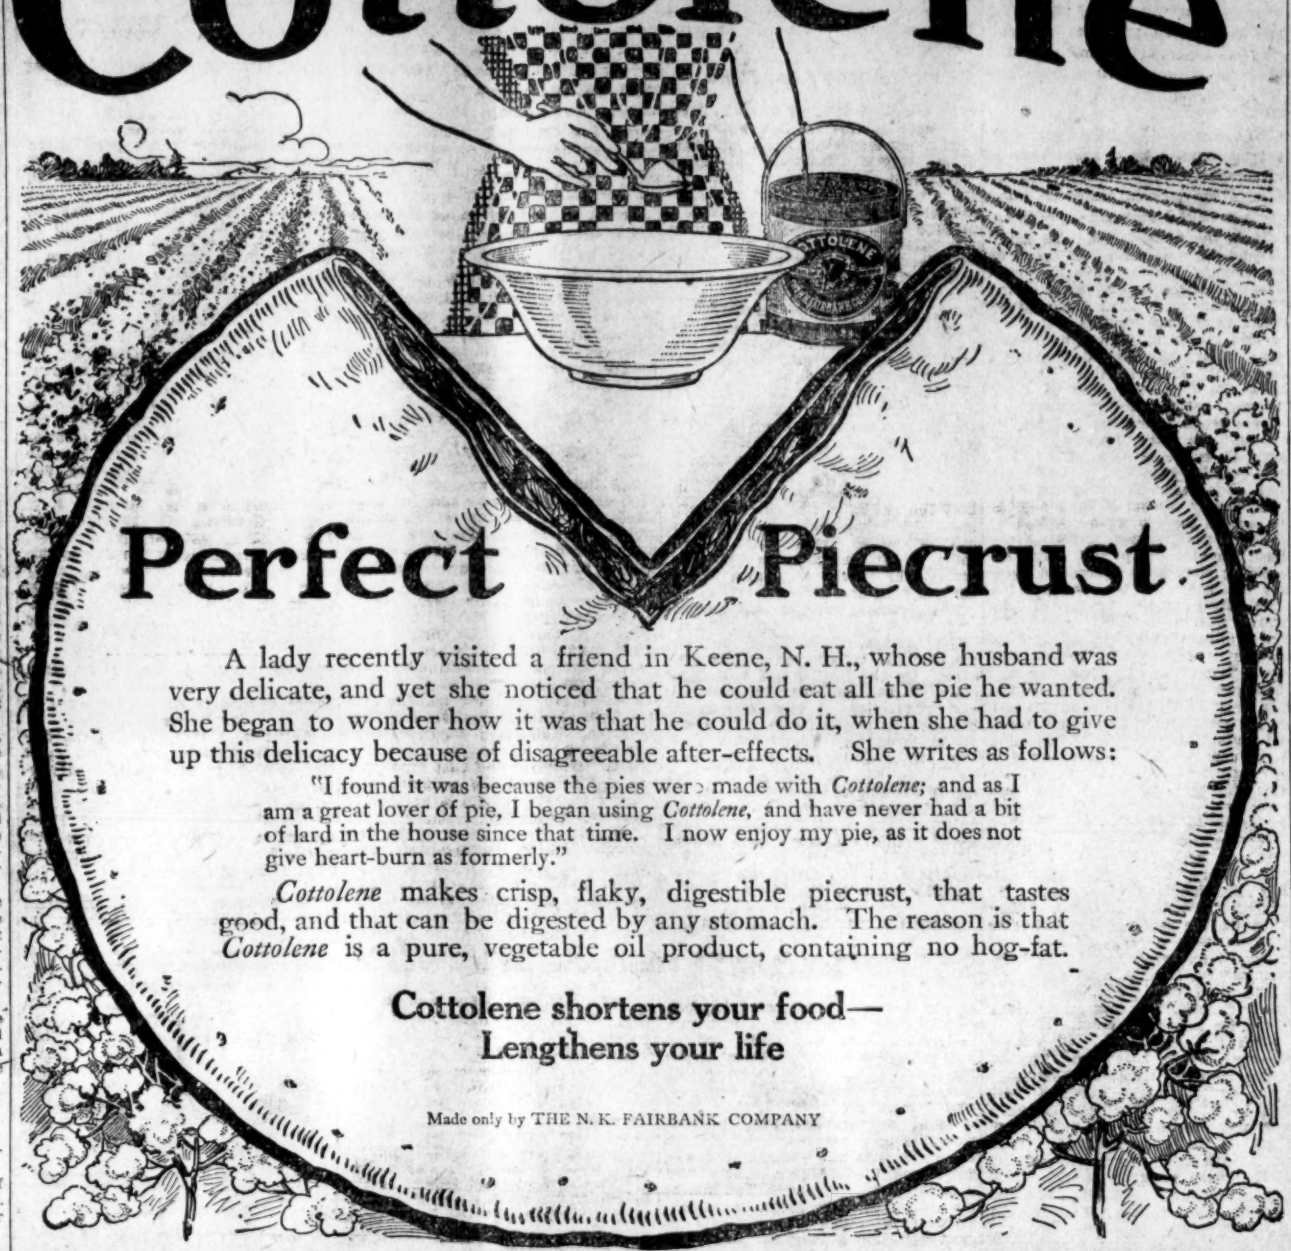
Saves an Iowa Man's Life.

The very grave seemed to yawn before Robert Madsen, of West Burlington, Iowa, when, after seven weeks in the hospital, four of the best physicians gave him up. Then was shown the marvelous curative power of Electric Bitters. For, after eight months of frightful suffering from liver trouble and yellow jaundice, getting no help from other remedies or doctors, five bottles of this matchless medicine completely cured him. It's positively guaranteed for stomach, liver or kidney troubles and never disappoints. Only 50c at Robert R. Bellamy's.

Cottolene



Perfect Piecrust

A lady recently visited a friend in Keene, N. H., whose husband was very delicate, and yet she noticed that he could eat all the pie he wanted. She began to wonder how it was that he could do it, when she had to give up this delicacy because of disagreeable after-effects. She writes as follows:

"I found it was because the pies were made with Cottolene; and as I am a great lover of pie, I began using Cottolene, and have never had a bit of lard in the house since that time. I now enjoy my pie, as it does not give heart-burn as formerly."

Cottolene makes crisp, flaky, digestible piecrust, that tastes good, and that can be digested by any stomach. The reason is that Cottolene is a pure, vegetable oil product, containing no hog-fat.

NORFOLK SOUTHERN.

Puts on Broiler Parlor Cars on Its Day Express.

The Norfolk Southern Railroad, with its already excellent passenger service, announces today that beginning Monday morning its "Day Express," leaving Norfolk at 11:00 A. M., will carry the latest and most modern Pullman Broiler Parlor cars between Norfolk and New Bern, in order to properly care for the increased travel. With this improved equipment the road now operates Pulman cars on all its through trains between Norfolk and Eastern North Carolina. By the addition of these dining cars quite a novel opportunity is afforded passengers. While comfortably seated in a parlor car they can enjoy their lunch, and at the same time, pass over the famous Albemarle Sound Bridge, about six miles in length, and said to be the longest bridge over navigable waters in the world. Passing the historic and pretty little town of Edenton at the lunch hour, the shores of the placid Albemarle are reached, and for six miles the route leads over this wonderful engineering project of modern times to the little town of Mackeys, originally called Mackey's Ferry, but which was changed with the passing of the old ferry steamer "John W. Garrett," that plied the waters of the Albemarle for years. No other road in the country could serve meals in its diners to its patrons under such unusual and novel surroundings.

The Norfolk Southern has improved its passenger service wonderfully within the last few months. Only within the past few weeks a night service with Pullman sleeping cars was inaugurated between this city and Goldsboro. The vast fertile section of Eastern North Carolina through which its lines traverse is brought into closer and more intimate touch with the business interests o fthis city, and where before the bridge over the Sound was constructed and transportation, both passenger and freight, was slow and unsatisfactory, fast and comfortably equipped express trains now operate bringing the section south of the Sound and as far south as New Bern and Beaufort into closer commercial and social relations.

The road is to be heartily congratulated upon its wide-a-wake spirit and should be liberally patronized by the public and the business interests which it serves.

KILLS SELF ON THANKSGIVING.

New York Man Had Nothing to be Thankful For.

New York, Nov. 24.—Feeling that he had nothing to be thankful for while all about him were people enjoying the Thanksgiving Day, Michael McGee, 26 years old, committed suicide in Central Park this afternoon by shooting himself in the head. "I have not anything to be thankful for on this day of thanksgiving," passers by heard him mutter. With that he drew a revolver and pressing the muzzle to his head, fired. He died instantly.

BUYS PLANT IN BALTIMORE

Swift & Co., Secures Large Fertilizer Business Established by Mr. Jno. S. Armstrong, Formerly of Wilmington—Deal.

(Baltimore Evening Star.)

That Baltimore is to have one of the largest fertilizer manufacturing concerns in the country has just become known today.

For a long while negotiations have been in progress by Western corporations looking toward the establishment here of large works for the manufacture of fertilizer, and for several weeks since rumors have been rife as to the purchase of various prominent plants by out-of-town concerns.

However, definite advice was received this morning to the effect that Swift & Co., the large Western packers and manufacturers of fertilizers, had succeeded in acquiring the plant of the Atlantic Fertilizer Company, which occupies the site of the old sugar refinery at Curtis Bay, and which is one of the principal local plants, although at the same time one of the most recent of establishment.

While the negotiations, which have been going on for several weeks, have been conducted with the greatest secrecy, the fact is now assured that the property has been acquired, and at an early date will be transferred to its new owners.

Although the officials of the Atlantic Company decline to speak as to the acquisition, those close to the Swift Company acknowledge that the transaction has been closed and that at an early date the large Western concern will be marketing and manufacturing its products here.

One of the interesting facts of the case is that it marks the inception of the Swift Company's invasion of the Eastern markets, the company's mammoth packing plant and by-product works being principally located in the West.

It is said that the Swift Company in emulating the example of their competitor, the Armours, have long had their eyes on Baltimore as a suitable manufacturing plant, and the fact of their final selection of this locality is but little surprising to those who are familiar with local manufacturing conditions.

The fact that the Atlantic works, too, became the choice of the Chicago concern was not surprising. The plant was started but three years ago by Mr. J. S. Armstrong, who up to that time was one of the principal bankers in the South, and who, with several associates, within that brief period, succeeded in establishing one of the largest fertilizer trades in the South.

It was said this morning that the Atlantic company's business for the past year almost trebled that for the previous period, and that the showing made as well as the up-to-date condition of the plant became strong factors in its purchase.

While it is not known whether the Swift Company will enlarge the works and thus acquire an increased output, by those familiar with fertilizer manufacturing conditions here it is said that this will probably be the outcome, and that by the acquirement of the plant by the Chicago house many additional employes will likely be engaged.

The Swift Company have for years past been represented here in the handling of their beef and provision products, both of which are among the largest distributing houses of the city. However, the latest venture is considered to be the most valuable to the community and one that will result in increased tonnage for the city as well as a large contribution to its annual salary list.

As it now stands, Baltimore is the largest fertilizer manufacturing center in the country, there being 16 manufacturing plants here which which turn out annually more than 500,000 tons, or about 34,000 car loads of the product. Some interesting figures can be gained from the last report of the United States Census Bureau, which every fifth year gives facts concerning the larger industries of the country. The last government report shows that the total investment of the fertilizer industry in Baltimore is about $10,000,000.

AUGUSTA "COMES BACK."

Census Taken by Volunteers in the Georgia City.

Augusta, Ga., Nov. 24—The volunteer citizens' count of Augusta shows that the Federal enumerators missed 3,469 people in the government census taking.

The population of the city of Augusta is 41,304, according to the count taken Sunday by 300 volunteer enumerators ,composed of all classes of people, including many of the most wealthy and prominent business men. This compares against the official count of 37,826 sent out by the census bureau last week and 39,441 as the official count of ten years ago.

A member of council, acting as a volunteer enumerator, reports an entire district, in the ward wherein he was working, which had never been visited by the Federal enumerators. Every ward in the city shows an increase over the Federal report.

When information came from Washington that discrepancies between the bureau's report and any count the city would make, must be shown by Tuesday morning, on account of the meeting of Congress, the administration and commercial bodies of Augusta decided upon the plan of taking a volunteer census.

COLORED A. & M. COLLEGE.

Great Work Being Done by President Dudley of Greensboro.

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Greensboro, N. C., Nov. 24.—One of the most encouraging features noting the negro's material progress, is the noteworthy interest that he is manifesting for the State A. & M. college for negroes, located in this city.

The president of this institution is reaching the negro in the rural districts of the State and is showing them the "main chance" given them by the State, which is giving them the best equipped A. & M. college for negroes, and most efficient faculty composed of the best negro professors in their respective fields found in the country among negro colleges doing a similar class of work, supported by the State.

Graduates from this college are filling responsible positions, for which they were trained, in many States and the demand for graduates from this college are so constant that they cannot be filled. Parents of youths eligible for admittance to the school, especially from the rural districts of the State, are sending their boys and today it is a problem for the president to afford ample room for the many applicants. The loding and boarding departments of the college are taxed. The enrollment and attendance of this Fall term is unprecedented and exceed that of any previous session. The president is compelled to refuse applicants for this term's entrance.

Dr. Booker T. Washington visited the institution during his recent tour of North Carolina and was surprised and the scope and proficiency of the work, and was especially proud of the liberality of the white people of North Carolina in giving his race such a excellent institution. Hon. E. J. Justice, ex-Speaker of the North Carolina House of Representatives, followed Dr. Washington in addressing the student body and said that he was heartily in favor of the negro being educated and giving him the kind of education that will fit him for the enjoyment of the rights of citizenship. He especially emphasized the fact that the negro must qualify himself for these rights.

Every department of the college is in excellent condition and the instructors are effectively reaching the students and giving them the proper kind of environment.

A BEAUTIFUL TRIBUTE.

(Charlotte News.)

It is with sincere regret that The News bears of the second affliction of J. P. Caldwell, for many years the gifted editor of the Charlotte Observer.

As to the exact nature of his condition we are uninformed. But it is our hope that he may even yet be spared for further usefulness, and if such is not the will of Providence, that his last days may be peaceful.

"Let's don't think of the future. Whatever it holds will be right. Today we are happy—happy with our friends, and with the joy that they bring into our lives—as for tomorrow—let's not think of that."

Thus did this brave man talk with the writer not long since.

Courageous to the last—serene in the belief that whatever is is right—bright even in the face of affliction—softening the decree of Fate by the sheer power of cheerful philosophy!

The cause of journalism misses him. If we all had our wish he would be back at his desk.

ALBEMARLE REJOICES.

Completion of Winston-Salem Southbound Means Big Thing.

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Albermarle, N. C., Nov. 23.—The Norfolk & Western having been connected at Winston-Salem with one end of the line and the Atlantic Coast Line having been connected at Wadesboro with the other end of the line, it was an auspicious day when the people of Albemarle and Stanly county witnessed at a point near Albemarle, the driving of the spike that connected both ends of the Winston-Salem Southbound Railway, thus connecting the two great railway systems and linking together the coal fields of the north, the cornfields of the West and the rice and cotton fields of the South, and this connecting link means more than this—it means the building together the great cities of the North and the Northwest, and the great cities of the South, and furnishes another and more direct trunk line for passenger travel from the North and Northwest to the land of the Greater South and on to the Panama Canal.

The last spike was driven today at noon and was attended by fitting ceremonies. Mrs. A. L. Cornell, wife of one of the chief engineers, and Mrs. H. Tiffany, wife of the resident engineer at Whitney, doing the driving. Taking part in the ceremonies were the following prominent men from Albermarle: S. H. Hearne, one of the old directors of the Winston-Salem Southbound, and a man to whom is due a great deal of credit for the construction of this new road, R. L. Smith, Esq., one of the Southbound attorneys, A. C. Huneycutt, Esq., another attorney from Albemarle, J. S. Efird, manager of the Efird Manufacturing Co., and a leading force in this section, ever a staunch supporter of the new railroad interest, and W. L. Mann, Secretary and Treasurer of the Live Business Men's Club of Albemarle.

The first train passed over the mammoth bridge which spans the Yadkin river just above the Whitney Power Co.'s dam yesterday, and with this last stroke today the road is now ready for the first through train which passes over this line on Friday, carrying the officials of the road and some especially invited guest.

The completion of this new road means untold advantages for the section through which it passes. The two towns which perhaps will be most affected by it and the two towns which will derive the most benefit from this new road are Lexington and Albemarle. Lexington already has a number of manufacturing plants, and the town is one of the most progressive in the State.

Albemarle is a town of about 7,000 people, has already seven cotton mills, and a number of furniture and wood working plants, and is growing perhaps more rapidly than any town of its size in the State of North Carolina.

A main line of the Southern Power Co., practically follows this new road, passing as it does through the two above named towns, and with the completion of the great Whitney Power Plant, which is only a few miles from Albemarle, the section through which this new railroad passes will rival any section of the South as a manufacturing section.

GATHERED TO GIVE THANKS

Representatives of Panaman Governments in Washington City.—Taft and Cabinet Members—Cardinal Gibbons.

Washington, Nov. 24.—Representatives of Panaman governments gathered today at St. Patrick's Catholic church here in a common Thanksgiving service.

President Taft, Secretary Knox, Secretary MacVeagh, Secretary Dickinson, Attorney General Wickersham and Secretary Nagel represented the United States. Mrs. Taft also accompanied the President. From the Latin-American countries the resident ambassadors and ministers in Washington were present.

The mass was celebrated in the presence of Cardinal Gibbons and the apostolic delegate to the United States, Archbishop Diome De Falconio. The church was decorated with the flags of the various nations of the Western hemisphere.

Ministers of the mass were clad in new vestments of gold and the Cardinal's pages wore costumes of pages of Louis XIV.

The sermon was delivered by the Rev. Charles Warren Curryer.

Ambassador Reid's Reception.

London, Nov. 24.—American Ambassador Reid and Mrs. Reid gave a Thanksgiving reception at Dorchester House today. The guests included officers of the American visiting fleet and many persons from the American colony in London.

Members from the battleships Idaho and Vermont played a game of football at the Crystal Palace this afternoon for a silver cup given by a local paper. The spectators included many English players who were curious to see the American game.

At Gravesend and Portland the visiting blue jackets occupied the day in sports.

ATTEMPTED TO AVIATE.

Mountain Young Man Who Came to Grief Over Cliff.

(Asheville Citizen.)

Since the election travellers into Madison county are bringing out some interesting stories not of the election in particular, but of things that might be supposed to have been the result of the upset condition in things over there after election. The following is told by a recent visitor to Marshall, but cannot be vouched for:

A flight without either an aeroplane or a bi-plane was attempted yesterday by a young man 23 years of age in Madison county, who in his attempted flight came near losing his life. C. W. James is the name of the young fellow, and the attempt of flight took place about five miles from Marshall, and was witnessed by several brothers and sisters, besides a number of friends, who had, it appears, indulged too much in "spirits."

Young James, as it is claimed, had been drinking with the other members of the family and friends, when the subject of "airships" came up, and after several had attempted to explain the workings of the airships, the young fellow exclaimed to those present that he would show them all how to 'fly," and at that time he rushed upstairs. When he came down, he had in his hands a pair of old eagle wings which had been kept in the family for several years, and an old umbrella and called to them all to follow him, and he would make a flight equal to any that had ever been made. James led the "bunch" who were in ignorance as to what he was going to attempt, about one mile away where they came up on a high cliff, which was about forty feet above the ground. Here he took from his pockets several feet of small sized rope, and fastened the eagle wings on his back up near his shoulders, and raising the umbrella, he made the "flight." Before anyone could stop him, he had jumped from the cliff, and no sooner had he jumped than the umbrella turned wrong side out, and he was hurled to the bottom.

When those witnessing the scene reached him, they found him in an unconscious condition, and badly bruised. No other injuries were sustained, and after he regained consciousness he exclaimed that the reason he failed to fly was that he forgot to "flop."

Mobile, Ala., Nov. 24.—Wind conditions today proved too great a handicap for J. A. D. McCurdy and Augustus Post, the two aviators participating in the aviation meet being held here this week. McCurdy made two short flights but was unable to soar above 50 feet, and after Post made one attempt the day's programme was called off.

brilliant on record here. But after the first ten minutes of play Vanderbilt's terrific dashes and strong defense wore the Tiger machine down and by the end of the second quarter it was completely dismantled. Sewanee gained by one first down throughout the entire game, this being on an 85-yard run by Lanier. Her six points were due to two brilliant field goals by Gilhem. For Vanderbilt the brilliant work of Morrison, coupled with the play of Neeley, Freeland, Metzger and others swept the Tigers off their feet. Sewanee worked forward passes brilliantly at the end, but her rally came too late. Vanderbilt's all round playing was the best exhibition she has given all the year, and Sewanee had no chance at any stage of the battle to make a showing.

Army and Navy Saturday.

Annapolis, November 24.—Football work at Annapolis for 1910 closed today with the final practice of the midshipmen on Worden Field. Tomorrow morning the Navy squad, numbering 35 players and substitutes, will leave for Philadelphia, where the game with the Army will be played Saturday on Franklin Field.

Head Coach Barrien at the conclusion of today's practice game, picked out the Navy's line-up for the big game so far as this is now decided upon. Two players are unsettled, however. Those are one of the back field positions and the right tackle. The team that will face Army will be composed of Gilchrist, left end; Loften, left tackle; Brown, left guard; Weems, center; Wright, right guard; Douglas, Davis, Merring or McCauguney, right tackle; Hamilton, right end; Sowell, quarter back.

The other back field positions will be filled by three chosen from Dalton, Clay, Rodes and McReavy, with the chances favoring Dalton and Clay at half back and Rodes over McReavy for full back.

The team is one of the heaviest and most evenly balanced that has represented the Navy. The line from wing to wing averages 174 2-7 pounds and the back field quartette 171 1-2 pounds, making the team average 174 6-11 pounds.

The practice today was in every way pleasing to the coaches. Coach Berrien expressed satisfaction over the outlook. He said all of his men are in fine physical condition and ready to play the game of their lives.

So far there has been little or no betting outside of the usual defiance waged between the students of the two schools, though some small wagers were recorded here today at even money and a few offers of 5 to 7 on the Army team were quickly covered by Navy supporters.

HYDE MAY BE RE-TRIED.

Helped by Evidence of Fraternity Brothers.

Helena, Mont., Nov. 24.—If Dr. B. C. Hyde is awarded a new trial, it will probably be because Joe Edgerton, a prominent Helena mining man and member of the last legislative assembly saw Hyde's name in the directory of the Phi Gamma Delta fraternity. Mr. Edgerton told the Associated Press the story of how he sent Hyde a box of cyanide estimated at two pounds and how, over seventeen years later he came to let Hyde's attorneys know of this fact.

Edgerton's statement is considered of great importance to Hyde, in view of the fact that the latter during his trial, could not explain to the satisfaction of the jury, where he had procured cyanide, which he admitted he had been using for many years.

Edgerton's statement follows, in part: "In April or May, 1893, after having lost my health in Montana, I was on a crowded train between Cherryvale and Kansas City. My seatmate was a young man whom it afterward developed was Hyde. I was just able to be about, and all talk naturally hinged about my illness, and from that we got to talking about cyanide. Hyde appeared to be interested in cyanide and as I had been using the stuff in mining operations, I promised to send him some.

"In July of that year when I was at Hill City, S. D., I filled a chalk box with cyanide and mailed it to Hyde. I wrote him a note on the letter head of a banking house, explaining that I had sent the stuff.

"Desiring to avoid publicity, I could not make up my mind to let Hyde know that I recalled the incident

"About six weeks ago while examining a college fraternity directory, I found the name of the Kansas doctor, and then it was that I wrote him in care of his attorney, and recalled the incident of having sent him the cyanide 17 years ago."

Mr. Edgerton has heard nothing from his letter aside from the story of the Associated Press, which was shown him.

FRENCH AVIATOR THRILLS.

Barrier Flys Over Richmond—At 2,500 Feet Attitude.

Richmond, Va., Nov. 24.—Fifty thousand people saw Rene Barrier, the French aviator, in a Bleriot monoplane, fly over Richmond and two of its suburbs today. Nettled because two of his countrymen—Simon and Garros—had made cross-city from the aviation meet at the Fair Grounds yesterday Barrier pleaded with Albert J. Moisant for the same chance and got it. Starting from the field, he circled down to the James river over Broad street park, where 10,000 people had already assembled for the Viginia-Carolina football game, and then cut across Broad street, where thousands were out for the Thanksgiving parade. He traveled at an altitude of 2,500 feet.

Barrier made the estimated circle of nine miles in eight and one-half minutes.

Simon, Garros and Barrier in monoplanes, and Frisbie in a biplane went into the air simultaneously soon after the opening of the meet today.

COTTON CROP THIS SEASON.

An Estimate from Memphis of 11,328,000 Bales is Given.

Memphis, Tenn., Nov. 24.—The Commercial Appeal tomorrow will public the following:

"Replies from correspondents of the Commercial Appeal throughout the cotton growing States, indicates that there was grown this season approximately 11,328,000 bales of cotton, taking no account of linters from the seed.

"Owing to the favorable weather, little or no rain having fallen during the Autumn, picking has made rapid progress and in many sections it is estimated that it will be completed by December 1st.

"The farmers are selling freely at private prices.

"The returns by States follow:

"North Carolina, 690,000. South Carolina, 1,180,000. Georgia, 1,740,000. Alabama, 1,180,000. Mississippi, 1,150,000. Tennessee, 275,000. Missouri, 52,000. Arkansas, Louisiana, 220,000. Oklahoma, 900,000. Texas, 3,106,000."

The verdict was returned at 10 o'clock tonight after a trial lasting one month and seven days.

The Vortex Hot Blast

The Hot Blast Heater With Two Tubes.

The top hot blast draft is supplied to the fuel body in a blast of whirling air. This highly heated air fans a flame as it mixes with the rising gases and causes a clean combustion of the cheapest fuel.

The large sensitive steel radiating surface makes it a quick heater. The all-steel body requires less blacking and other labor in keeping it clean.

No fire pot exposed to burn red and look bad after the first few fires.

Prices $12.00 and Upward.
